A Soldier's Reception In Saugus 1865

The citizens of Saugus gave their returned veterans a warm welcome and a hospitable reception on Friday of last week. The immediate cause of the affair was the return of several members of Company A Fortieth Mass. Regiment, who have recently arrived from the seat of war, but all the other veterans were included in the ceremonies of the occasion. A procession was formed at ten o'clock, consisting of the officers, citizens and clergy of the town, the returned veterans, Sons of Temperance, Good Templars, school children in carriages, and a cavalcade of citizens, preceded by the Boston Cornet Band--- the whole under charge of Harmon Hall, Esq., as Chief Marshal. After marching through the principal streets to Cliftondale, East Saugus and back, the cortage proceeded to Catamount Grove, where an excellant collation was in waiting. Mr. John Armitage presided, and E.P. Robinson, Esq., delivered an address of welcome. Remarks were also made by Rev. Mr. Brigham and Rev. Mr. Marcy, Messrs. Oliver, Davis, Howlett and others. The following appropriate lines, written and read by Mr. Joseph Steele, were warmly applauded by the large assembly which listened to them:----

In a grand triumphal march,
Over hill and dale we'll roam,
Each heart with pleasure overflowing
For the "Fortieth" has come home!

They have marched o'er hill and valley
'Neath the blaxing summer sun,
Trampled on the necks of tyrants
Grand old heroes, every one!

On the field they never faltered,
Heart and sword they held in hand
Battled for the flag above them,
For their own dear native land.

Here's a health to every soldier,
Every veteran tried and true
Who left "Sunday clothes" behind them
And put on the army blue!

Here's a hand to greet Frank Dyzer,
Bragg and Osgood, Mansfield, too.
Parsons, Downing, Copp, and Jeffers,
All have worn the army blue.

McCleary, Baker, Walworth, Newhall,
Every noble, honored name,
Stocker, Schofield, Hobbs and Stackpole
All worthy of a soldier's fame.

Nor will we forget John Seward
Rich, or Parker, in the train,
Noble, gallant, faithful soldiers
Welcome, welcome home again.

Welcome now to good old Saugus,
In battle - march no more to roam;
We are thrilled with joy to meet you,
Welcome, soldiers! Welcome home!

One has travelled home on crutches,
Changed an old leg for a new
But the old stump of the soldier,
Is his badge of honor true!

And should Treason's loathsome carcass
Come again with wasting wars,
Our brave veterans still would battle
With their old stumps and their scars.

Two have gone where battle sound,
Tramp of steed or roar of gun,
Cannot wake from rest profound,
Yet we loved them every one.

For our native land they battled,
For our native land they died;
Ever green we'll keep their memory
Cherish it with patriot pride.

Brave and gallant Sergeant Foster
Glorious deeds of thee are told;
Thou hast won undying glory,
In our hearts thou'lt ne'er grow old.

Thou hast had a better greeting
Than to sons of earth is given;
Thou art wearing soldier's laurels
In the glorious blue of heaven!

Our God is the God of Freedom
Our God is the God of Love,
And with all our martyred heroes
Sergeant Foster dwells above.

And forever we'll remember
Gallant Wiggin, brave and true,
Who on Southern soil is lying,
In his shroud of army blue,
But whose spirit, upward flying,
Found a freedom grandly new!

Boys! the old flag, now is waving
As it waved in days before!
It's been wet in blood of heroes,
It's been drenched with patriot gore;

But it waves at last o'er freemen,
Nobly, truely, purely free,
And brave soldiers of the "Fortieth"
Have helped win this Liberty!

RECOMMENDATION.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

BOSTON, March 27, 1863.

I certify that I have examined the form of a Book, prepared by Mr. George Coolidge, for the use of the Clerks of Cities and Towns, under the "Act to preserve a Record of our Soldiers and Officers," passed March 7, 1863, and believe it to be well adapted to the purpose, and worthy of the attention of Town Officers.

WILLIAM ROGERS, Major and Assist. Adjt. Gen.

Approved. JOHN A. ANDREW, Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

PLAN OF THIS RECORD.

The Book is planned to comprise as many names as appear on the enrolled Militia list.

On the blank line in the Title-page write the City or Town, County, and State. [Example: "The Town of Adams, in Berkshire County, Massachusetts."]

If the Record consists of more than one volume, on page 2 of volume 1 write the numerical designation of each additional volume; and also the same in the title-page of each added volume.

The signatures of the City or Town Clerks, on page 2 of volume 1, as indicated by the blank forms, is regarded as a proper form of authentication of the Record. Those Clerks only are to sign their names, during whose terms of office entries are made in the Record.

THE ALPHABETICAL INDEX TO NAMES.

A lettered Index, in separate binding, is supplied with this book, in which to copy from the Record, alphabetically, the names of Soldiers and Officers, and of Seamen and Officers, and the pages on which the names are recorded. Write the surname first, and place the name in the Index under the initial letter of the surname. [Example: "Smith, John—117." Place it in the Index under letter S.]

The pages next following this page are designed for the transcript of the lettered Index. Copy the names beginning with A, and leave blank the remainder of the column in which they end. Commence names beginning with B at top of the next column; and so proceed with the other alphabetic letters. If no name occurs with which to commence an alphabetic column of names, leave the column blank. Should future calls for men be issued, such names may occur, and require their proper place. In case more men are called for, and their names will not come into their alphabetic columns in the Index, write on the last line of the full column in this manner: "Letter A is continued on page 17," etc., and continue the names accordingly.

No distinction between the names of Military and Naval men should be attempted in the Index, they being classified under their Military or Naval character in the Record.

The lettered Index, after being copied into this book, may be laid in the front of the book and used with facility in referring to names, without detriment to the Record in case it should be defaced or lost; it being originally written only as the most convenient method for recording the index in the record volume, not for mere use as a duplicate.

THE MILITARY AND NAVAL RECORDS.

The "marks designating sources of information," are designed for use only when the Recorder may consider it desirable to use them, and not for use in all entries made in the Record.

The space between each two horizontal red lines is designed for the record of one person. The Example below will illustrate the plan of making the entries in the Record.

The regiment is to be construed as a Massachusetts regiment, unless otherwise stated.

Should the space of three lines, allowed for each person's record on the right hand page, ever prove inadequate for the purpose, write at the end of the third line, "Continued on page —," and continue the required entries on a page at the end of the printed leaves.

Alphabetical arrangement is impossible, except in the Index at the beginning, as it may be necessary to add names to the list at future times. Any classification by Regiments is also impossible, as the progress of the war occasions many changes in this respect.

The Statute requires that the Record shall comprise the names of those composing the "quota" of the city or town. In cases where surplus men of some towns are assigned to the quotas of other towns, it is recommended that they be also recorded in the Records of those towns in which they have their residence, on whose "Roll of Honor" their names and services should certainly appear. No confusion, it is considered, of any important consequence, can result from this procedure.
